The Honorable Amy Klobuchar
United States Senate
302 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510-2308

Dear Senator Klobuchar:

The National Retiree Legislative Network (NRLN) that represents more than 2 million retirees was pleased when you introduced S. 315, Hearing Aid Assistance Tax Credit Act, on January 29, 2015. Thank you for introducing this important bill. We are disappointed that the Senate Finance Committee has not passed your bill.

We believe passage of your bill is important because a tax credit of up to $500 for the purchase of a qualified hearing aid would be very beneficial to Americans with hearing loss, especially retirees living on a fixed income.

I have sent letters to Finance Committee Chairman Orrin Hatch and Senator Ron Wyden, Ranking Member, urging them to call for a vote on S. 315. If there is anything else we as advocates for retirees and your bill can do to help move the bill forward please let me know.

I have thanked Senator Dean Heller for joining you in introducing S. 315. Also, I have sent a letter to Representative Devin Nunes to thank him for introducing H.R. 1882, the companion bill.

The NRLN's full Legislative Agenda and detailed whitepapers can be found at www.nrln.org. Your consideration on these issues would also be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Bill Kadereit, President
National Retiree Legislative Network
